

Help, My Home(school) Is Chaos!

David Hazell – My Father’s World

Is your homeschool day made up of demanding toddlers and emotional teens, six subjects to prepare for each child, co-op demands, music, sports, falling behind, tears, chores, skipping chapters...and you wonder, “Where is God in all this?” Learn to work together as a family to achieve attainable goals with a fresh outlook and easy-to-implement organizational ideas. Bring sanity and success back to your home, and enjoy the process.

This is intended to be an interactive workshop. Please bring your questions and we will brainstorm solutions.
