

“HOW A WIFE CAN USE REVERENCE TO BUILD OR SAVE HER MARRIAGE”

S. M. Davis

1 - Reverence is the command that balances and gives meaning to _____.

Submission is the place or _____ of the wife in God’s order for the home. It is not an _____ position.

Reverence is the practice or _____ of the wife in relation to her husband.

For a wife to submit to her husband without reverencing him would make her submission seem _____.

Reverence _____ a husband. Reverence moves a husband. Reverence _____ a husband. Reverence lifts a husband. Reverence _____ a husband. Reverence empowers a husband. Reverence _____ a husband.

2 - Reverence is the activity of a wife _____, _____, _____ and _____ her husband.

It is almost every positive thing but _____, which is reserved for God alone.

3 - Reverence is a wife finding the joy of meeting a _____ given to her husband by our wise Creator.

The need of a wife, given by her Creator, is for the security and commitment of a husbands’ _____.

The need of a husband, given by his Creator, is for the encouragement and sense of _____ that comes from his wife’s reverence.

Every time a wife senses a need for her husbands' love and commitment, she should use that as a reminder to her that she needs to _____ reverence to her husband.

The use of reverence is a wife's best way to protect her husband against the dangers of _____.

What is the worst thing that a wife can do? Reverence any man _____ than her husband.

What is not reverence? Correcting, complaining, criticizing and nagging is _____ reverence.

One reason many ladies have a problem with criticizing their husbands is because men often do _____ things.

Your children's viewpoint of their father is probably based to a great extent on what they _____ you say about him.

Perhaps the worst form of disrespect a wife can exhibit toward her husband is _____.

Proverbs 27:15 says, "A continual _____ in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike."

Help develop and praise his _____ skills.

_____ the work that he does.